Item specifics

Type: Other Wholesale & Job Lots

Condition: Used

A superb opportunity for you to acquire a small, or large part of the nations criminal defence service - anything up to 1/8th of England and Wales in fact. You will be bidding to acquire what is already a world class provider of justice, operating 24/7 throughout England and Wales, providing 100% cover for those facing criminal investigation or prosecution. You will get to meet all manner of folk, some are even innocent of the crimes for which they have been arrested or charged.

Regrettably, we have to let this go as the present owner can no longer afford the upkeep having squandered the family silver on the international banking crisis, and is therefore looking to place it in a new home. We are not at all fussy where it goes, and one should not suppose for a moment that we care what happens to it once we are rid. We are however insistent on protecting minimum quality standards and therefore require the new owner to satisfy us that they can speak. With that powerful skill the other stakeholders in the system will just have to muddle along and help you make it work.

We of course accept no liability if the buyer gets stung with TUPE obligations running into the millions and advise you to take independent legal advice (and we advise that you do that quickly as it seems to be disappearing very fast.

We should of course like to record our thanks to all those poor unfortunates who are going to shortly be made redundant and worked so hard in the past to build this world class service. As Carolyn Regan herself recently said "That's business folks. Tough. Get on with it", or certainly words to that effect.

We welcome any buyer's questions.

Happy bidding.
